

Tight 5 Contracting Ltd. one of the leading mechanical insulation companies in the lower mainland is looking for insulators to join our team.

We are offering full-time positions with competitive wages and full medical & dental benefits after a probationary period.

Full company funded apprenticeship program also available for those who qualify

We are looking for;

- Self starters
- A willingness to learn
- A positive attitude
- Team players
- Ability to work alone with little supervision
- Reliable transportation
- General knowledge of construction protocols
- General knowledge of safety procedures
- Experience in the construction industry considered an asset
- Level one first aid also considered an asset

Please forward your resume to rfq@tight5.net